

Snapshots of MS. TROMLEY'S CLASS

Week of November 27

What We're Learning

Math: Division concepts- review of division with remainders and interpreting remainders.

Introduction and practice of dividing in patterns with multiples of 10, estimating quotients, and using the distributive property.

Language Arts:

Writing- (Opinion) revising & editing rough draft- What animal makes the best pet and why?

Grammar- Progressive verb tenses (present, past and future)

Reading: Informational text structures- review of each type with a focus on Compare & Contrast text structure, review and use of close reading strategies.

Science: Waves- What are pitch and volume and how do our ears work?

Social Studies: Life at Spanish Missions

Important Dates

THIS WEEK:

Tuesday, 11/28- Liturgical Music Practice with Brother Kevin

Thursday, 11/30- Field Trip to Mission San Diego de Alcalá 8:00-11:30am!

Friday, 12/1- Mass @ 8:00 (Full Dress Uniform)

UPCOMING:

Tuesday, 12/5- Mass, Adoration, and Benediction (full dress uniform) – Half Day

Wednesday, 12/6- Vocabulary unit 3 test

Thursday, 12/7- Publishing Party @ 2:00!

Friday, 12/8- Feast of The Immaculate Conception Mass @ 8:00 (full dress uniform)

Notes from the Teacher:

- ❖ Don't forget to keep buying gift cards! Turn in your orders by Wednesday! The top 3 classes this week earn free dress!
- ❖ Be sure to practice our Christmas Program song- Step in to Christmas by Elton John- so we can get the lyrics memorized!

November Birthdays

Elizabeth- November 27th

Weekly Homework

- ❖ Word Study activities
- ❖ Nightly Math review and practice
- ❖ Read 10-20 minutes each night!

Happy Thanksgiving!

We give thanks to you, O God, we give thanks, for your name is near. We recount your wondrous deeds.

Psalm 75:1