

Snapshots of MS. TROMLEY'S CLASS

Week of January 15

What We're Learning

Math: Dividing Three & four-digit numbers with and without reminders.. Zearn goal: lessons 30-32

Feeling confused? Go back and review lessons on Zearn! Listening to and practicing with the Math Chats again are great review!

Language Arts:

Writing- Continuing to develop our next opinion writing piece (What is the best sweet treat and why?)

Grammar- Types of sentences, complete sentences

Reading: Finishing of Nonfiction text structures unit - Informational text structures- review of each type and identifying each within reading.

Science: Waves- What color is light? Why do we see light as white?

Social Studies: Research and create for Hispanic Culture Study

Important Dates

THIS WEEK:

Monday, 1/15- Martin Luther King Jr. Day Observed, No School!

(CHANGE) Friday, 1/19- Vocabulary unit 5 test

UPCOMING:

Tuesday, 1/23- 4th Grade Hispanic Culture Presentation

Wednesday, 1/24- Opinion writing piece due (What makes the best sweet treat and why?)

Thursday, 1/25- Math Test (Division Unit)

Friday, 1/26- Grandparent's Day/Open House, Mass at 9:30am (lead by 4th grade)

Notes from the Teacher:

- ❖ CHANGE MADE- Vocab unit 5 test will now be on Friday, 1/19 instead of Monday, 1/22
- ❖ Remember to take home materials needed to study for tests! You can access Studies Weekly online, if you forget your newspaper!

January Birthdays

Martin Luther King Jr- January 15
Sydney- January 19
William- January 25

Weekly Homework

- ❖ Word Study activities
- ❖ Study for Vocabulary unit 5 test (Friday 1/19)
- ❖ Read 10-20 minutes each night!
- ❖ NO weekly math review and practice this week- many students have math classwork to make up at home.

Happy New Year!

In the new year, may you be blessed with all the good things God has to give!